1. About 11,000 former members of "international brigades", including those employed at the Black Sea ports and heavy industry, have been transferred to Hungary and Bulgaria from Rumania.
2. Camps where "brigade members" were formerly billeted are now used by Soviet troops who have just arrived. Two new Soviet divisions composed almost entirely of intelligentsia and students arrived 19 January in Rumania. They are now stationed in the Jebel - Voiteg area. Students are allegedly serving their military term in Rumania to earn scholarships or future employment. It is reported that all the soldiers are graduates of Stalin schools and all the officers speak German, Rumanian and Serbo-Croatian. It is assumed that these divisions will be used for combat against Yugoslavia.
